SEPTEMBER

Sundays 14 & 28 September

Forty Hall

There is a lot more rhododendron to be removed along side the brook and fishing lakes. We will be doing our bit to eradicate this Victorian trespasser from the Jacobean grounds.

Meet 10am in Forty Hall car park off Forty Hill, EN2 9EU.

OCTOBER

Sunday 12 October

Grovelands Park

There is a lot of debris and vegetation in the brook that runs off the lake and down towards the woodland play area. Come and join us help tidy this up but don't forget your wellies!

Meet 10am at the Council yard, off the Broadwalk entrance N14 6RA.

Sunday 26 October

Trent Park

In 2011 we helped Froglife plant up 2 new ponds for the local amphibians to use for breeding and doing whatever else frogs, toads and newts do in their spare time. Now these ponds need a bit of TLC as part of the management plan.

Meet 10am at the Main entrance off Cockfosters Road.

NOVEMBER

Sundays 9 & 23 November

Oakwood Park

If it's November it's hedge laying time again. Time to continue with re-laying the historic hedgerow which we started 2 years ago. Come and learn this ancient countryside craft at no cost!!

Meet 10am outside the park café, Oakwood Park, Southgate N14 6QB.

DECEMBER

Sunday 7 December

Arnos Park

The Friends of Arnos Park have asked for our help in constructing some raised beds in the old children's playground area using recycled railway sleepers (from Enfield Town park). These will be used for a community vegetable growing project in the future.

Meet 10am at Morton Crescent entrance, off Morton Way, N14.

Sunday 14 December

Social Walk

Our traditional end of year route march to a pub for a sociable Christmas lunch with no work involved!

Venue and meeting point to be announced.
